

NWRH SERVICE DELIVERY & CORONAVIRUS (COVID 19)

OPERATING IN OVER
50 COMMUNITIES
ACROSS REGIONAL, RURAL & REMOTE AUSTRALIA
SINCE 1993.

NWRH are committed to your health by continuing to deliver essential health care services to the communities that we current work with.

We understand that people may be worried about Coronavirus & how this may affect access to health services. The Australian Government is encouraging people to continue to access health services, while observing hygiene & social distancing rules.

NWRH have implemented strict measures to keep staff & clients safe while continuing to deliver one to one, face to face consultations. We can also offer phone & telehealth sessions so that you can access health services without leaving home.

Remember that all NWRH health services are FREE!

It is important to maintain your health through the current situation. Whether you prefer to access health and support services face to face, or via phone/telehealth, your health care professional can assist you to remain healthy.

NWRH are committed to providing:

- Disability Services
- Mental Health and Wellbeing Services
- Aged Care Services
- Allied Health Services
- Carer Support Services
