

In Year 5 English this term, it has been a pleasure watching students engage in following procedures and learning about a range of topics while building our understanding of note taking and information reports.

Through this term we have also been learning about our world and galaxy through Science and school projects such as our garden. We are currently building on our understanding of items in our gardens; by asking why items are deemed healthy.

